Sunday Oct 29 - Reformation 500

On Reformation 500 Sunday we'll examine the historical dynamics that form the back drop to contemporary Christian thought. Why can't you buy your way into heaven? Or can you? What constitutes good Christian practice – faith in God or good works? And who said what in the debate that arose after Martin Luther issued his 95 theses Wittenberg on October 31, 1517. How has that act changed our world and what are we to think of it now?

Worship leader - Jim McKibbin

Sunday Nov 5 - Remember

Since World War I, much of the war poetry has been implicitly, if not explicitly, anti-war. Poets from around the world are responding to the inhumanity of war and in that way have become activists for peace.

Come and hear the words of Siegfried Sasson, Pastor Martin Niemöller, Bejan Matur, Maram al-Masri and Leonard Cohen.
