Thank you

One last "Thank you" to the congregation for all of your effort, support and enthusiasm for Marketplace 2017. We hope that you enjoyed the event as much as we did. We felt that once again you all stepped up and there was a good blend of ages, stages, newer and long time members along with a sprinkling of outside family and friends. This year was special with the addition of our younger members taking a more active role. Good job, all!

In spite of the drizzly day, and perhaps a bit smaller crowd, we will contribute over $9,000. to the church. You all did a great job and Beach United is the better for your efforts.

Pat Buchanan and Danna Fitton

Advent reflection

We think we know the story of Jesus' birth but what does it actually say in the bible? Here is a clue on where to look - find the 4 Gospels of the Christian Scriptures [New Testament].

- Which tell of the birth of Jesus and which do not?
- Is there one cohesive story or a number of different stories?
- How do you find meaning in this birth narrative - as a literal account or as metaphor?
- Which parts of the story speak to your life?
