Kitchen Conversations

We all gravitate to the kitchen at get-togethers. The kitchen is the hub of family and community; it is where it all happens!

The kitchen at Beach UC was designed with community in mind. This week a small group of folk gathered to eat and share in conversation. We talked about what is important in our lives and how we came to BUC. The conversation was lively and heart-felt. We touched upon important life issues that people would like to engage in through an open, exploring community of faith.

The food was great and the conversation nurtured our spirits. We hope to have other gatherings in the near future.
